GATHERING AROUND THE WORD

PRELUDE

GREETING

Liturgist, Lee Sanders

CALL TO WORSHIP

Sing praises to our Lord:

who heals us and makes us whole.

Sing praises to our Lord, faithful children of God:

whose joy rises in our lives each and every day.

Sing praises to our Lord, faithful children of God; give thanks to God's holy name:

God's Kingdom is near to us; God's peace resides in our hearts.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

With songs of thanksgiving on our lips, we come before you, Helping God. While your anger may last only a moment, your grace rests upon us until the 12th of never. When we find ourselves knee-deep in the muck and mire of life, you provide a way out for us, if we but trust enough to serve you.

Glad choruses of praise greet you, Jesus, Companion of pilgrims in this life. You take us by the hand to waltz up past the outstretched arms of sin and death. You send us out into the world, teaching us not to boast about ourselves or all that we have done, but to point out to others the path to the kingdom, if they but trust enough to follow you.

We offer a harvest of praise to you, Spirit of joy and wonder. You pour out your gentleness upon us, so we might be energized to do what is right. You patiently sit down to teach us, using bold print so we might learn lives of service, gratitude and humility, if we but trust enough to listen to you.

God in Community, Holy in One, may we trust always in you, even as we raise our voices in song to praise your name.

CALL TO CONFESSION

Unlike ours, God's anger does not last. But God's favor, God's grace, and God's forgiveness are for us, not just in this moment, but forever. How can we not want to confess to such a One who is ready to heal us? Please join me as we pray, saying,

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Holy One, why is it that we can grow so weary of doing what is right, yet always energetically do that which we know is harmful to us and others? We sow seeds of hurt and anger, and wonder why we harvest so much bitterness. We spend too much time comparing ourselves to those around us, and too few moments in following Christ's example.

Rather than letting our sins gloat over us, Healing God, we would open ourselves to your mercy and grace. As you reach out to heal us with your forgiveness, may we embrace your love, your mercy, your grace for our lives. As you pour out your Spirit of gentleness, may we bring the peace of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, to all the world.

(Silent prayer and personal confession)

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Sing praises to our God, faithful children. God has heard our prayers and made us whole.

We will not be silent but will sing our joy to the One who has forgiven us and made us a new creation. Thanks be to God. Amen.

Doxology #606 Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow

Prayer of Dedication

In the offering of our gifts, as well as the living of our days, may we not grow weary of doing what is right, but commit to speaking up for the voiceless, healing the broken, feeding the hungry, and all those mercies which are such a part of your heart and hopes for all your children. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

INVITATION TO THE LORD'S TABLE

GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

May the Lord our God be with you.

And also with you.

Children of God, lift our hearts.

We lift them to the One who heals us at the Table of brokenness.

Children of God, give thanks to the Lord our God.

We will sing our praises to the One who restores us to life.

We do not bring silence to you...

... will not keep silent, but praise you forever and ever, God in Community, Holy in One. Joining together in the prayer Jesus taught us:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
